WHY BE BALD?

Tells How to Stimulate Growth of Thick, Lustrous Hair.

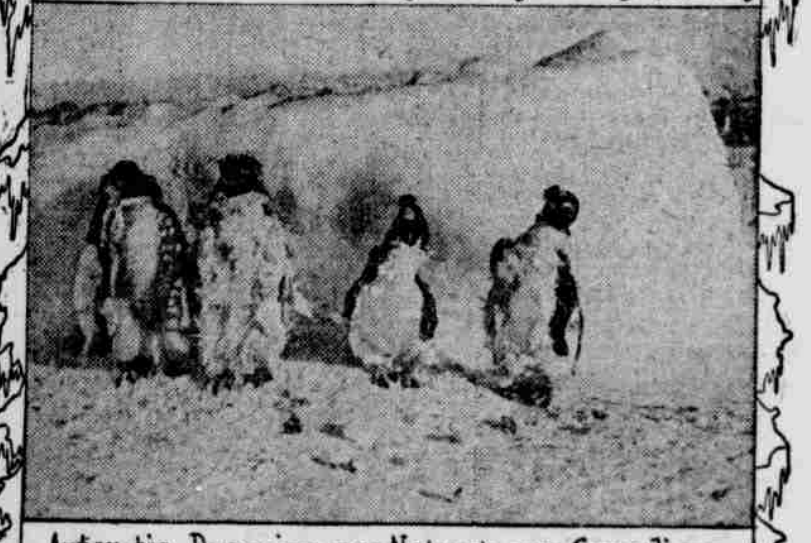

A luxuriant head of hair is God's birthright to every man—to every woman. If your hair is thinning out, splitting, prematurely gray, brittle, difficult to comb, full of dandruff, and your head itches like mad, it's a pretty sure sign the hair roots are diseased and quick action should be taken. Don't wait, but go to the Red Cross Pharmacy and get a bottle of Parisian Sage, the really efficient hair grower. Don't say "it's the same old story, I've heard it before," but try a bottle at their risk. They guarantee it to stop falling hair and itching scalp and remove all dandruff or money back.

Parisian Sage is also woman's favorite hair dressing because it makes her hair soft, bright, seem more abundant and easy to dress attractively. It's guaranteed harmless and is inexpensive.—adv.

CLIMBED STAIRS ON HER HANDS

Too Ill to Walk Upright. Operation Advised. Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This woman now raises chickens and does manual labor. Read her story:

Richmond, Ind.—"For two years I was so sick and weak with troubles from my age that when going up stairs I had to go very slowly with my hands on the steps, then sit down at the top to rest. The doctor said he thought I should have an operation, and my friends thought I would not live to move into my new house. My daughter asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had taken it with good results. I did so, my weakness disappeared, I gained in strength, moved into our new home, did all kinds of garden work, shoveled dirt, did building and cement work, and raised hundreds of chickens and ducks. I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if these facts are useful you may publish them for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. M. O. JOHNSTON, Route 2, Box 190, Richmond, Ind.

BETHEL

Funeral of Mrs. Harry L. Washburn Held at Her Late Home.

The funeral of Mrs. Harry L. Washburn was held at her late home this noon at 10 o'clock, Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating, with interment in the family lot at Rochester. Mrs. Washburn's death occurred Wednesday afternoon following an operation last Saturday for an aggravated case of appendicitis. She was born in Starksboro 56 years ago, a daughter of the late Royal and Charlotte (Drake) Bostwick, who, with their children, came to Granville, the home of Mr. Washburn many years ago. She was married to him June 16, 1881, and 14 years ago they came here, having bought the Chase farm from Charles Clark. She is survived by her husband and by a son, Loran H. Washburn. A daughter, Viola, died soon after they moved to Bethel. There also are four brothers and two sisters living. They are Albert Bostwick of Star, Idaho, Edward, Cassius and Charles Bostwick of Granville, Mrs. O. W. Hall of Star, Idaho, and Mrs. Silvanus Wardner of Brookfield, who was with her at the last.

S. J. Jebb has come from Brockton, Mass., to spend the summer on his farm. His son, Samuel, Jr., now employed in a store in Brockton, is here for a week's vacation.

Dr. C. K. Johnson of Burlington, traveling under the joint auspices of the state board of health and the State Federation of Women's Clubs, lectured last evening on "Infant Mortality." Earlier in the day he filled a similar engagement in Rochester. There were piano duets by Mrs. W. O. Bailey and Miss Marion Adams and a duet by Misses May Carney and Margaret Carney. Dr. Johnson was given a rising vote of thanks on motion of Mrs. Guy Wilson, president of the local Women's club.

A daughter was born April 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Bowen.

A daughter was born May 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Carney.

Miss Susan Hibbard of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Gay.

Mrs. Laura Williams received a dispatch Thursday noon informing her of the death of her brother, Bentley G. Fisher, aged 64 years, at the Boston City hospital "May 1." As the telegram was dated May 3, 11:20 a. m., she cannot believe that his death occurred so soon. James P. Marsh, son-in-law of Mrs. Williams, was in Boston a week ago to see Mr. Fisher, who had just been taken to the hospital. Reports had been received several times since then. He had been in poor health five or six years. For several years he was driver of horse cars in Boston and then for many years was a motorman. Three years ago he spent a year here with his sister. He was suffering from sciatic rheumatism at that time and seemed to receive much benefit by visiting an institution at Mount Clemens, Mich. However, he has not been able to do any hard work for years. He was born here, a grandson of Timothy Fisher, an early settler, and a son of John Fisher, who had seven children, including Curtis Fisher, who died in the Union army. Mr. Marsh, on receipt of the dispatch announcing his death, took the first train for Boston Thursday afternoon. The funeral will be held here some time Saturday and burial will be at Fairview cemetery.

BERLIN

The second of the special pleasant Sunday evening addresses at the Berlin Corners church will be given next Sunday by W. G. Reynolds of the state board of education, on "Vermont, Our Home and Heritage," illustrated with stereoscopic views. Last Sunday's address by James B. Estee on "Present Conditions and the Spirit of the Hour," was a very timely and useful presentation of the way in which communities such as Berlin could meet the need of the hour. Although the roads are many of them bad and much sickness is about, a good audience gathered and were well pleased both with the speaker and with the recitation of Mrs. M. Corliss.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

A Film That Is Beyond Comparison at Opera House May 7.

A most marvelous filmization of human achievement in polar regions will be presented by Lyman H. Howe at the opera house on Monday, May 7. It is a living, pictorial record of Sir Douglas Mawson's expedition through mountainous seas, raging blizzards and towering icebergs into the heart of the Antarctic continent. The close-up scenes offer endless amazement and amusement. They show penguins, a kind of bird-fish which cannot be seen in any zoo nor elsewhere on earth, and yet for natural comedy they are truly "head-liners." They are as funny as they are real. To see these queer creatures is alone worth the price of a ticket. Then, too, there are baby-eyed seals lazily reclining here, there and everywhere—drifting on ice, crawling on land or gracefully swimming in ice-filled seas.

From a purely scenic standpoint of wondrous new vistas of old mother earth, the importance and beauty of this film cannot be conveyed by words, since they are so far beyond comparison with any scenes of the kind ever photographed. Then again, there are portions that show the daily experiences, the vicissitudes, privations and perils that beset the party continually in ice-bound, blizzard-swept Antarctic. All in all, the production in its entirety makes an indelible appeal by a happy blending of the artistic and amusing—pathos and comedy. It is in itself a liberal education, and what is more, it is a real entertainment. Furthermore for young and old it sets forth an example of fortitude, of heroism and of perseverance in the performance of duty which is immensely stimulating. And so to see it is to gaze on scenes that can never be forgotten.—adv.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

(By Dr. Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.)

A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig, of London, has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess is the real cause of rheumatism. Every one has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "bric-a-brac."

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, cause rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers, or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again, they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat.

At all such times people should drink copiously of hot water, say, a pint morning and night, and take Anuric, (double strength) three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take Anuric occasionally, and continue for three or four weeks, and in that way avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system.

Make yourself healthy and strong by open air exercise and diet. Then cleanse the liver by occasionally stimulating its action with a pleasant laxative composed of the May-apple, dried juice of aloe, and root of jalap, sugar-coated and long sold by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.—Adv.
